

SATURDAY 14

Southern and Lusophone Africa between National Liberation Struggles and the Cold War Part one

9,30 am | 11 am 5th SESSION

Chair SERGE WOLIKOW Fondation Gabriel Péri/University of Burgundy - Dijon

MARIA-BENEDITA BASTO University of Paris 1 «Panthéon-Sorbonne»

Amílcar Cabral: les années de Lisbonne (1945-1960) et les relations entre la question coloniale et le communisme portugais

GIULIA STRIPPOLI «Universidade Nova de Lisboa» - Lisbon

Global socialism and communist parties: women's movements in Portugal, Angola, Guiné-Bissau and Mozambique

11 am | 11,30 am Coffee break

Southern and Lusophone Africa between National Liberation Struggles and the Cold War Part two

11,30 am | 1 pm

MASSIMILIANO PINNA University of Macerata

The Italian Left and National Liberation Struggles in the Lusophone Africa

JEAN-MICHEL MABEKO-TALI «Howard University» - Washington

The relations between Western CPs and African movements in colonial or postcolonial spaces in the context of the Cold War

ANNA KONIECZNA «Sciences po» - Paris

Le Parti communiste français et l'anti-apartheid des années 1960 aux années 1980

Discussant PAOLO BORRUSO «Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore» - Milan

in collaboration with

with the support of

A Minor History?

Western Communists,
Anti-Imperialism
and Decolonization
in Africa

ROME 12 | 14 DECEMBER 2019

Fondazione Gramsci
Sala Biblioteca
Via Sebino, 43a

THURSDAY 12 2 pm Opening greetings

Western Communists and Africa between the two World Wars

2,30 pm|5 pm 1st SESSION

Chair SILVIO PONS Fondazione Gramsci/Scuola Normale Superiore - Pisa

SERGE WOLIKOW Fondation Gabriel Péri/University of Burgundy - Dijon
Quelle place pour l'Afrique dans la politique du Comintern?

PATRIZIA MANDUCHI University of Cagliari
Antifascisme, communisme et nationalisme en Tunisie:
les années de Velio Spano à Tunis (1938-1943)

HABIB KAZDAGHLI University of Tunis
Rôle et traces des communistes italiens dans la direction du parti communiste en Tunisie durant la Seconde Guerre (1941-1943)

ALAIN RUSCIO Historian
Luis Aragon et la question coloniale

FANOMEZANTSOA SOLOFO LALAO RANDRIANJA University of Toamasina
Le Parti communiste de la Région de Madagascar (1936-1939)

Discussant PAOLO CAPUZZO «Alma Mater Studiorum» University of Bologna

5,15 pm|6 pm

Key note speech NICOLA LABANCA University of Siena

Notes on Communists' uncomfortable position from colonialism to postcolonialism

FRIDAY 13

9,15 am|10 am

Key note speech ALLISON DREW University of York- University of Cape Town
African, European and Soviet Communists: Consensus and controversy

Algeria as a case study

10,15 am|12,45 am 2nd SESSION

Chair ALLISON DREW University of York- University of Cape Town

ÉLOÏSE DREURE University of Burgundy - Dijon
Entre Paris, Moscou et Alger, émergence et structuration du phénomène communiste en Algérie coloniale, 1920-1925

PIERRE-JEAN LE FOLL-LUCIANI Historian
Tensions et collaborations. Les relations entre communistes français et algériens en métropole (1945-1962)

BRUNA BAGNATO University of Florence
Le Parti Communiste Italien, la gauche italienne et la guerre d'Algérie (1954-1962)

MARISA FOIS University of Geneva
Le Parti communiste italien et «la révolution algérienne en marche vers le socialisme»
(1963-1973)

ANDREA BRAZZODURO University of Oxford
Reframing the European Political Geography: Algeria, France, Italy, 1957-1975

Discussant MASSIMILIANO TRENTIN «Alma Mater Studiorum» University of Bologna

Western Communists and Decolonization in Sub-Saharan Africa

2,15 pm|4 pm 3rd SESSION

Chair MARCO DI MAGGIO «Sapienza» University of Rome

N'GORAN GÉDÉON BANGALI «Jean Lorougnon Guédé» University - Daloa
Les répercussions en Afrique occidentale française de la sortie du PCF du gouvernement tripartite métropolitain: Cas de la crise structurelle à la CGT AOF-Togo (1951-1956)

JOSÉ GOTOVITCH ULB-Centre des archives du communisme en Belgique - Bruxelles
Agir à travers un cordon sanitaire: le PCB et le Congo

MADOU SOULEYMANOU University of Douala
Le rôle et la posture du PCF et des étudiants camerounais de France dans la stratégie d'implosion de l'UPC par le pouvoir colonial français au Cameroun (1955-1971)

ERIC BURTON University of Innsbruck IMMANUEL R. HARISCH University of Vienna
The missing link? Western communist as mediators between the East German FDGB and African trade unions in the late 1950s and early 1960s

Discussant FRANÇOISE BLUM University of Paris 1 «Panthéon-Sorbonne»

Western Communists and Postcolonial Africa

4,30 pm|6,30 pm 4th SESSION

Chair NICOLA LABANCA University of Siena

RICCARDO CIAVOLELLA «Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales» - Paris Third-Worldist Anthropology and Marxism in face to the Emancipation of African Oppressed Peoples: Historicity, Populism and Pan Africanist Anti-Imperialism

ALEXANDER HÖBEL University of Naples «Federico II»
The 1968 Mediterranean Conference in Rome, the Italian Communist Party and its relationship with Egypt

PAOLO BORRUZO «Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore» - Milan
The Italian Communist Party and the Horn of Africa in the Seventies and Eighties

GABRIELE SIRACUSANO «Tor Vergata» University of Rome

MARCO DI MAGGIO «Sapienza» University of Rome
Une politique «euro-africaine». Le PCI et l'Europe comme «pont» entre l'Afrique et le monde socialiste

Discussant SARA LORENZINI University of Trento